

A MAN AT LAST.

The personal more than the political aspect of Judge Parker's magnificent act that we wish most to emphasize today. He has given fresh hope to America. Democratic government wears a fairer face for the discovery of such civic virtue as his held in reserve for the day of great need. Judge Parker has removed a reproach not only from his party, but his country. Too many were saying of the United States, as Dierke did of France, that it had its chapeau and its mitrailleuse, but "of that third engine, called a man, it did not possess a single specimen." Today we can point to the man, so towering that England sees and salutes him, so modest and unpretentious and simply brave that his fellow-countrymen are rejoicing in him as in a new national possession. ## Call for Democratic State Nominating Convention.

Pursuant to the action of the State Democratic Executive Committee of West Virginia, at the meeting thereof in the city of Huntington, W. Va., on the 15th day of July, 1904, a convention of the Democratic party of the State of West Virginia is hereby called to meet in the city of Parkersburg, W. Va. on Wednesday, August 3, 1904, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following State offices: Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Attorney General, Treasurer, Superintendent of Free Schools, an additional candidate for member of the Supreme Court of Appeals if deemed advisable and proper by the convention, and two Presidential Electors at Large, and to transact such other business as may properly arise before the convention.

The basis of representation of each county in said convention shall be one delegate for each one hundred votes and fraction thereof over fifty cast for the Democratic nominee for President of the United States at the general election held in the year 1900, that is to say:

A War-Time Menu.

"Down in Vicksburg the other day I got hold of a copy of an interesting bill of fare which some 'Johnny Reb' wag got up as a burlesque on the menu of the Confederates," said Mr. R. B. Kirby, of Chicago, at the Raleigh, according to the Washington Post.

"This mock list of eatables was printed in the shape of a regular hotel bill, and was issued just prior to the end of the siege of Vicksburg, July 4th, 1863. Here are a few of the items:

"Soup: Mule tail.
"Boiled: Mule bacon with poke greens; mule ham canvassed.
"Roast: Mule sirloin, stuffed with rice; saddle of mule a l'armee.
"Vegetables: Boiled rice; rice hard-boiled; hard rice, anyway.
"Entrees: Mule head, stuffed a la Reb; mule hoof jerked a la Yankee; mule ears fricasee a la getch; mule hashed a l'explosion.
"Desert: White oak acorns; beech nuts; blackberry leaf tea; genuine Confederate coffee.
"Liquors: Mississippi water, vintage 1492, very superior, $3; limestone water, late imported, very fine, $3.75; spring water, Vicksburg bottled $4.
"This precious document concluded as follows:

"Meals at few hours; gentlemen wait upon themselves. Any inattention in service should be promptly reported to
"JEFF DAVIS & CO.,
Proprietors."

O. W. S. Gum and Matilda E. J. Gum, Plaintiffs,
vs.
In Chancery.
E. J. Hoover, W. R. Hoover, John T. McGraw and B. M. Yeager, Defendants.
The object of the above entitled suit is to perpetually enjoin and restrain the defendants E. J. Hoover and W. R. Hoover, their agents, attorneys and all other persons, from cutting and removing any of the timber on the 70 acres of land mentioned and described in the deed from the defendants John T. McGraw to the said E. J. Hoover and W. R. Hoover, dated the 14th day of September, 1902, a copy of which is filed with the bill in said cause, and to set aside and cancel said deed as a cloud upon the title of the plaintiffs to the timber in said deed mentioned, and for general relief.
This day came the plaintiffs by their attorneys, and on their motion, and it appearing by affidavit filed, that the defendant, E. J. Hoover, is a non-resident of this State, it is ordered that he do appear here within one month after the date of the first publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

Dragging Pains

2825 Keeley St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1902.
I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groin. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.
